

Sponsored Costa Rica Trek

Enjoy a trek through the diverse landscape of Costa Rica - from smoking volcanoes to palm-tree lined tropical beaches. Trekking in Costa Rica will provide you with an unbelievable experience you will never forget, just think of paradise! The country is home to some amazing creatures - ranging from howler monkeys to toucans – all are populous and relatively easy to spot. The coast line is wonderful and the beauty is staggering.

For those of you with a desire to do something amazing for a great cause simply give us a call at the office on 07795 255 393 or email events@libralionscharity.org and we will send you a full information pack and everything you need to take part in the experience of a lifetime.